

Celtic League AGM 2013
Resolutions Passed
Clwb y Bont, 25th to 27th October, Pontypridd, Cymru

Éire:

Go éilíonn an Cruinniú Chinn Bliana seo bord eagarthóireachta a bhunú, chun cuidiú leis an eagarthóir i rith an aimsir idirthréimhseach go E-Carn.

That this AGM calls for an editorial board to be set up, during the transitional period to eCarn, to assist the editor.

Diúltaíonn an Cruinniú Chinn Bliana seo, iarrachtaí á dhéanamh ag seoiníní chun leithscéal a thabhairt do na hainghníomh a rinne na Fórsaí Slándála Briotanach i rith ‘Cogadh na Dúchrónach’.

Ar an mbealach céanna diúltaíonn an Cruinniú Chinn Bliana seo iarrachtaí eile chun baill de fórsaí forghabháilithe sceibhlitheoireachta na Breataine a léiriú mar throdairí ar chomhchéim moráltachta le baill d’Óglaigh na hÉireann.

This AGM opposes attempts by pro-Imperial elements in Ireland to sanitise atrocities committed by British Security Forces during the ‘Black and Tan War’.

In similar vein, this AGM also opposes efforts at portraying members of the occupying British terrorist forces as combatants of equal moral footing to the volunteers of the IRA.

This AGM:

Reiterates its call on the British Government for the European Framework Convention for the Protection of National Minorities to be applied to the Cornish people.

Alba (Emergency Motion):

This AGM congratulates Alex Salmond, John Ramsay Swinney and the other senior members of the SNP for their key role in settling the dispute at the Grangemouth refinery and petro-chemical plant. We also call for national assets of this type and importance to be taken into public ownership.
